

October 10, 2006

Media Contact: Claudia Nakano 801/538-8805

Communications Director, Utah Department of Community and Culture

State History Presents Panel on Wallace Stegner

Scores of people were disappointed when a bomb at the Salt Lake Library brought the Utah State Historical Society Annual Meeting to an abrupt halt last September. Many attended the Annual Meeting specifically for the special panel discussion on Wallace Stegner. Because of the bomb scare and evacuation of the library, the discussion did not take place.

The originally scheduled panel on “Wallace Stegner’s Utah Connection” will be held on Wednesday, October 25, at noon at State Archives, 346 So. Rio Grande Street (just south of the Rio Grande Depot). The panelists will include Dan Johnson, speaking on the Wallace Stegner centenary celebration; William Mulder, who will provide historical perspective on Stegner’s novel Recapitulation; and Robert Steensma, who will talk about Salt Lake City as Stegner knew it. Peter DeLafosse will chair the session.

The event, which is part of the Archives Month activities, is free and open to the public. For more information, call Kent Powell at 533-3520.

###

State History is a division of the Utah Department of Community and Culture and serves the citizens of Utah by helping to make history accessible, exciting, and relevant—and integral to the economy and culture of the state.